PLAYFUL PUPS GROW INTO DOG GUIDES THANKS TO WALK

BAYFIELD GUIDING

In this the 100th anniversary year of Girl Guides of Canada, the girls and women of the organization have been challenged to Eradicate Hunger and Poverty in their communities.

The members of Bayfield Guiding have accepted the challenge and will be working in cooperation with Bayfield Foodland on this service project.

On June 12, members of Bayfield Guiding and their families will be present at the grocery store accepting pre-packaged bags of groceries that may be purchased in store by shoppers.

The food collected will then be donated to the local food bank.

All in the community are encouraged to help the membership in their effort to collect more than 100 kilograms of food.

Every dog starts out as a playful puppy; a select few will have a very important job when they grow up. They will become Dog Guides "helping Canadians with disabilities achieve greater mobility, safety and independence."

But raising a puppy and training it to become a Dog Guide takes a lot of time and money. However, due to the fundraising efforts of the Lions Foundation of Canada, Dog Guides are provided free to each individual.

The Bayfield Lions' Club has been a proud supporter of the "Purina Walk for Dog Guides" for 22 years.

"For a community our size, Bayfield's Dog Walk has done a wonderful job in raising money for this worthy cause," said Lion Peter Westwood, in a recent press release.

This year the Bayfield Lions' Club will hold their walk on June 6, starting at 9 a.m. Registration will take place behind the Bayfield Arena beginning at 8:30 a.m.

There is no registration fee and the walk is open to all ages. Dogs and their owners are encouraged to participate in the walk together but people without a four-legged friend are invited to take part as well.

The walk raises money that goes directly to five Dog Guide programs: Canine Vision, Hearing Ear, Special Skills, Seizure Response and Autism Assistance.

You can register and obtain pledge forms on-line at www.purinawalkfordogguides.com or by calling Lion Jerry Stirling at 519 482-7625.

It costs about $20,000 to raise a puppy, train it to become a Dog Guide and place it with someone in need. Over the past 25 years, the Lions Foundation of Canada has helped over 1,500 men, women and children through the use of specially trained Dog Guides. This year the goal is to train 110 Dog Guide teams.

"Our pets provide us with so much comfort and love but Dog Guides give their partners even more. They give their human partners more freedom to enjoy life. This is an opportunity for us to make a difference in the lives of Canadians with special challenges," wrote Westwood in the press release.

BOOK ON THE WEXFORD TO LAUNCH JUNE 20

Bayfield's Sail and Canvas Festival is about one month away. This unique festival to be held in the village on June 19 and 20 highlights both local marine heritage and art. So there is no better person to be featured at the event than Paul Carroll of RR2 Goderich.

Not only will he be at the festival in his role as local artist but on June 20 he will be guest of honor at the book launch for his most recent work at a reception hosted by The Village Book Shop. Light refreshments will be served at the event which will begin at 2 p.m.

Carroll has combined a talent for writing, a skill for watercolor and an enthusiasm for the Great Lakes into a published book.
He is the author of the soon to be released book The Wexford (Dundurn, 2010) which will be the focus of the upcoming book launch.

The book tells the story of the beautiful vessel that carried cargo across the Great Lakes until it became a victim of the Great Storm of 1913. Eluding discovery for 87 years, her remains were found near Goderich in 2000. Carroll traces her history from her British origins in 1883 through to her discovery and the controversy over how she should be protected.

Carroll is also co-author of Four Years on the Great Lakes: The Journal of Lieutenant David Wingfield, Royal Navy (Dundurn, 2009). The book tells the story of the War of 1812 through the eyes of David Wakefield, who joined the Royal Navy in 1806 at the age of 14.

KICK OFF FOR BLUEWATER BLOOMS FAST APPROACHING

Bayfield residents have always shown a strong sense of pride in their horticultural efforts but this year they may be recognized for it.

FITNESS FUN

First there was pole walking and now the latest fitness craze to come to town is Pickleball.

What in the world is Pickleball, you ask? Well, organizers state that it is like slower paced tennis. Curious? To learn more call Pat Lewington at 519 565-2202 to arrange an orientation to the sport.

Games will be played at the Middleton's Orchard tennis courts on Mondays and Tuesdays from 8-11 a.m. and on Wednesdays from 2-4 p.m. The first games will be played on June 7.

And, of course, Pole Walking remains a popular part of many fitness regimes. If you are an early bird the Tuesday sessions of Pole Walking may be perfect for you. Those experienced at this fitness activity can join in the 8 a.m. trek. Or if you'd like to learn how to properly practice this popular activity plan to attend the introductory lessons held at 9:15 a.m.

There is also a Pole Walking session held on Thursdays at 3:30 p.m. All groups depart from 6 Main Street. The session incorporates an hour of walking with an ending cool down stretch.

Plus, exercise classes will continue through the summer months.

Dancefit and Toning classes are held Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 9 a.m. The Sit and Get Fit Classes take place on Mondays and Wednesdays at 10:15 a.m. Both classes are held in the Bayfield Community Centre.

BRIDGE CLUB

The Wednesday Evening Bridge Club would like to invite anyone with a penchant for card playing to attend their next meeting, May 26.

The decks will be shuffled starting at 7 p.m. at the Bayfield Lions' Community Building.

The Municipality of Bluewater has entered the provincial competition in the 2010 Communities in Bloom (CIB) program. The committee is referred to as the Bluewater Blooms Committee.

The “kick-off” for the Bluewater Blooms initiative will be held on June 19 on Main Street in front of the library at 11 a.m. All interested groups and individuals are welcome to attend and sunflower seeds will be available.

The Bluewater Blooms Committee would like to make everyone aware that the flower colors chosen for the project are white, yellow, orange and bronze. Residents and businesses might take these colors into consideration when organizing their spring plantings.

CIB is a Canadian non-profit organization committed to fostering civic pride, environmental responsibility and beautification through community involvement and the challenge of a national program, with focus on the promotion and value of green spaces in urban settings. The program consists of communities receiving information and being evaluated either provincially or nationally by a volunteer jury of trained professionals on the accomplishments of their entire community (municipal, private, corporate and institutional sectors, citizens) on eight key criteria.

Bluewater will participate with other communities in its population category, and be evaluated by CIB judges on the eight program criteria. Bloom ratings from one to five blooms (five being the highest ranking) are awarded to participating communities at a provincial awards ceremony annually in the fall. The program provides for two communities in each province to participate in the following year’s national edition.

The odd duck in a crowd of blue-eyed quackers.

PHOTOS AND STORY BY MELODY FALCONER-POUNDER

May 23 was a beautiful day for a rubber duck race.

Close to a hundred people, including many young children, collected on the south pier to watch the bright yellow ducks bob, float, weave and rock their way down the course. The field of over 300 got off to a slow start but passing sail and power boats really gave the current a boost and in just 25 minutes the first duck crossed the finish line. Although it was a close race between second and third, entry #337 pulled out in front early on and never looked back.

Three prizes were awarded to the fastest ducks: 1st place, a barbecue valued at $500, donated by Bayfield Garage-Auto Pro was
