THIRTY-ONE NEW TREES NOW GRACE VILLAGE STREETS

AT THE PHARMACY...

Pharmasave, Michael's Pharmacy wants to help area residents live the best life they can. For this reason they are hosting two upcoming seminars for people living with Diabetes and blood pressure concerns.

Diabetes Management and Prevention will be the topic of discussion at a seminar to be held at the pharmacy on Nov. 26. Blood Sugar testing techniques will be highlighted. And then on Nov. 28, a Blood Pressure Management Seminar will be held with traditional and natural approaches being discussed.

Both seminars are free but as space is limited anyone wishing to attend should reserve a spot by calling the pharmacy at 519 565-4454.

Can't make it to a flu clinic this fall? Never fear, the pharmacists at Pharmasave Michael's Pharmacy and Bayfield can give the shot to anyone five years or older.

The shots will be offered on a walk-in basis, Monday to Friday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturdays, 10 a.m. to

Some of the members of the Bayfield Tree Project joined the Mayor of Bluewater and the planting team for a photograph prior to the Fall Planting on Nov. 5. Folks about the village will have noticed that last Tuesday (Nov. 5) was a very productive day for the Bayfield Tree Project (BTP).

On Tuyll St. they planted: two Green Spire Lindens, one Tulip Tree, two Ornamental Pears, five Red Buds, six Elms and three Hackberry. In 2012, they planted some "Homestead" Elms on Tuyll St. at Colina St. This year, in the same location, they added some "Valley Forge" Elms. Curious individuals are encouraged to check the labels on the trees to see which is which. It should be noted that both varieties are resistant to Dutch Elm Disease.

On Ducharme Cres., off Hamilton St., they planted one each of the following: Tulip Tree, Maple, Hackberry, Sycamore and Red Oak plus three Sunburst Honey Locust. On Christie St. a Sunburst Honey Locust was planted.

On John St., kitty corner to the west end of the Bayfield Arena, they planted two Red Buds and a White Angel Crab Apple.

A total of 31 trees were planted.

“You'll also see that some of the trees that were previously staked have had the stakes removed to be reused and that "white guards" have been wrapped around the tree trunks to protect them from animals in the wintertime,” said Ainslie Willock, for the BTP.

On behalf of the membership she said, “A big thank you to all the homeowners who have agreed to slowly water the trees for 20 minutes once a week, during no-rain periods, for the next two years. This will help guide the roots down to the underground water supply.”

She also extended thanks to Verbeek's Farm and Garden Centre, of Clinton, for all their extensive work; Ontario Hydro, Tuckersmith Telecommunications (TCC) and Union Gas for providing all the locates prior to planting; the Bluewater Council and staff, Ausable Bayfield Conservation Authority (ABCA) and the Bayfield River Trail Association, for all their support.

The project continues to be indebted to all those people who have made a donation toward tree plantings. Their names can be found on the BTP website, bayfieldtreeproject.com. To join this growing group of donors beautifying the community and helping the environment, simply make a cheque out to ABCA with Bayfield Tree Project in the memo line. These can be mailed to: ABCA, c/o P.O. Box 164, Bayfield, ON N0M 1G0. ABCA will issue a charitable receipt for tax purposes.

The BTP are now planning for their spring planting, to learn more contact Sondra Buchner at sondra@bayfieldtreeproject.com or 519 565-2518.

According to Pharmacist, Michael Ibrahim, people need to be monitored for about 20 minutes after they are given a shot to ensure they don’t react to it so people should allocate their time accordingly.

LETTERS TO SANTA

Bayfield residents will be pleased to know that Santa Claus will once again be receiving mail in his special mailbox at the new Post Office Box Building on Main Street in the Bayfield Library Complex.

Last year with the construction of the new building the box was relocated temporarily to the Bayfield Convenience Store (also home to the local post office). Santa’s elves were grateful for the assistance last year but are very happy to get back to the old routine. They have so very much to do at this time of year!

ST. JAMES', MIDDLETON

“Soup ‘N Sweets” sounds like the perfect comfort food to indulge in for a good cause. The congregation of St. James’, Middleton will be hosting said luncheon on Nov. 17 starting at noon.

On the menu will be homemade soups, fresh breads, beverages and some great desserts! A free will offering shall be collected for the Huron County Christmas Bureau. The luncheon is scheduled to start following the 11 a.m. church service at noon. All are welcome to join in worship prior to the meal.

LIONS' CLUB

The Bayfield Lions’ Club members have recently added a BLOG page to their website: www.bayfieldlions.ca. They hope to initiate discussion on topics of interest to the community.

Their introductory piece speaks to the future of the Bayfield Arena. They hope to hear from people and encourage everyone to outline their thoughts on the future of the building.

According to Lion Dave Nearingburg, this opinion piece is not the official position of the Bayfield Lions’ membership but merely meant to initiate discussion. He invites others to feel free to add their comments.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

The Bayfield and Area Firefighters are pleased to announce that they were able to collect eight carts full of food donations and just over $400 in cash donations during Christmas in Bayfield on Saturday (Nov. 10).

AVIVA FUND VOTING

Three Camp Klahanie veteran campers enjoyed a weekend at the property on Nov. 2-3 after four long years. They invite everyone to vote for the camp in the third round of the AVIVA Fund Competition. (Photo by Melody Falconer-Pounder)

Four years of challenges and negotiations resulted in the Camp Klahanie, located between Bayfield and Goderich on Hwy. 21, being sold to the Goderich Lions Club. It is now being revitalized for youth in Huron County and beyond to use and will officially open in Spring 2014.

Camp Klahanie has a bright future ahead of it and it could be even brighter if the Goderich Lions Club is successful in their quest to make it into the Top 10 in the third and final round of the AIVA Community Fund competition that began on Nov. 11.

At the time the Bayfield Breeze was published on Wednesday morning, Camp Klahanie sat in ninth place in the voting. They need the community’s help to stay in the top 10. If all of the current supporters vote everyday in the third round and others rally their support the idea has a very good chance of making it to the semi final and a chance at winning $50,000.

One of the goals of the Camp Klahanie Board of Directors and Lions members is to provide better facilities for co-ed camping opportunities. A second building with washrooms is needed to realize this goal. In addition there are dreams of having a hiking trail around the property and individual camping bunkies hidden in the woods for campers to fully enjoy camping in nature. Beyond the dreams there is a real need to replace the roof on the kitchen building and picnic shelter in the very near future.

The Aviva Community Fund is, according to their website, “an annual competition that is changing Canadian communities by bringing great ideas to life. The most popular ideas, as determined by passionate Canadians like you, will have a chance to

ANNUAL TREE LIGHTING DRAWS LARGEST CROWD EVER

STORY AND PHOTOS BY MELODY FALCONER-POUNDER

In Clan Gregor Square on the evening of Nov. 8 the air was very, very crisp and those people who gathered in the park for the tree lighting came all bundled up – the hot drinks served were indeed popular! It would appear that every year we try to convey just how large the crowd that gathered was and each year the crowd seems to grow and grow. This year it is probably quite safe to state that the largest crowd ever gathered in the park for the annual lighting of the lights.

While the crowd waited for the lights to turn on they indulged in hotdogs and hot drinks sold by the Bayfield Town Hall Heritage Society in support of the Bayfield Town Hall.

Karen Sealy, Interior Designer and frequent guest on City TV's City Line, was given the delightful task of leading the crowd in a countdown to the switching on of the lights. She invited several really enthusiastic youngsters to help her count.

And following the countdown the park was all that more brightly lit thanks to the generosity of Tuckersmith Communications Corporation (TCC) who provided an additional 250 strands of lights for the trees in Clan Gregor Square.

Once the lights were shining it was time for Santa Claus to make his grand entrance off a Bayfield Fire Truck. Santa was afforded rock star treatment when people of all ages lined up on either side of the walkway leading to the gazebo for an opportunity to greet the jolly old elf. Even more youngsters waiting for their special moment on his knee when he reached his special chair greeted him at the gazebo. After time with Santa many families drifted off toward Main Street to check out the shops and restaurants on Main Street that were open late to mark the start of the holiday season.

win a share of the $1,000,000 Aviva Community Fund."

People are encouraged to vote for the cause everyday to help the project move to the semi-final. New voters will have to register but all it takes is an email and a password. Here is the link Anyone on Facebook who would like helpful voting reminders is asked to join the group known as: "Goderich Lions Club – Camp Klahanie Revitalization".

Once the lights were shining it was time for Santa Claus to make his grand entrance off a Bayfield Fire Truck. Santa was afforded rock star treatment when people of all ages lined up on either side of the walkway leading to the gazebo for an opportunity to greet the jolly old elf.

Santa was greeted by a very large crowd with the youngest wishing to visit and the older folks wanting to document said visit with a camera or a camera phone.

Some youngsters weren't a bit shy to say, "Hello".

Seemingly hundreds of children lined up for a minute on Santa's knee.

COLD, WIND, RAIN AND HAIL DID NOT DETER CROWD THAT GATHERED TO REMEMBER

PHOTOS AND STORY BY MELODY FALCONER-POUNDER

Chaplain, Major The Rev. Dwight Nelson C.D. presided over the Remembrance Day Service in Bayfield on Sunday.

Olga Palmer (left) and Janice Nelson braved a strong wind to lead the crowd in the singing of the National Anthem.

Strong winds, cold temperatures and rain mixed with hail graced the Service of Remembrance held in Clan Gregor Square on the morning of Nov. 10. Despite the weather a good crowd of valiant citizens were drawn to the Square to gather around the cenotaph to honor the community's casualties of war.

The Roll of Honor for both World Wars was read out at the service. Our soldiers lost in the 1914-1918 conflict were: Edward Adley, Arthur Clarke, Harvey Currie, Kenneth Currie, Russel Erwin, Victor Evens, Allen McDonald, Robert McLeod and Wilfred Toms. Those men lost in the battles of 1939-1945 were: Stewart Cann, Robert David James Hopson and Richard V. Weston.

Members of the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 140, of Clinton comprised the color party.

Many poignant moments were noted during the wreath laying ceremony. The wreaths were laid by: Gary Brandon, Royal Canadian Legion; Major the Rev. Dwight Nelson and his wife, Janice, Bosnia, World War I and II; Greg Henderson, Afghanistan; Danielle Tarnawski, Gulf War I and II; Korean War, Geordie Palmer; U.N. Peacekeepers, Olga Palmer; Ben Lobb, Government of Canada; Province of Ontario, Tyler Hessel; Municipality of Bluewater, Geordie Palmer; Jaci Van Altena and Joey Brandon, HMCS Provost; Josh Mackenzie, Canadian Army and Air Cadets; Janet Snider, Trinity Anglican Church; Elinore Coutts, St. Andrew's United Church; Ivan Norris, Knox Presbyterian Church; Brian Harvey, The Church on the Way; Terry Boa-Youmatoff and Olga Palmer, Youmatoff family;

It was too windy to display the wreaths on stands so they remained safely stacked until they were laid at the cenotaph.

Jaci Van Altena and Joey Brandon laid a wreath on behalf of HMCS Prevost, Naval Reserve Unit of London, ON.

Joyce McIlwain, Bayfield Optimists; Lloyd Huffman, Bayfield Lions; Mary Brown, Bayfield and Area Chamber of Commerce; Bailie Dayman and Morgan Kennedy, members of Bayfield Girl Guides for Bayfield Guiding.

James Cann, brother of fallen soldier, Stewart Cann, laid a special wreath in his honor, with the assistance of Mary Ellen Cann.
The service was presided over by chaplains, Major The Rev. Dwight Nelson C.D.

Jessica Langan performed The Last Post and The Reveille on the trumpet. Dianne Alexander, Bayfield Chairperson for the Royal Canadian Legion, Clinton Branch #140 coordinated the event.

Following the service at the cenotaph participants were invited to attend a luncheon at St. Andrew's United Church.

Dianne Alexander handed Lloyd Huffman a wreath to lay on behalf of the Bayfield Lions' Club.

The 2013 Remembrance Day Services in Bayfield were met with a myriad of unpleasant weather including strong winds.

James Cann, laid a wreath in memory of his brother Stewart Cann, a local boy who died in World War II and whose image is one of those featured at the cenotaph. He was assisted by Mary Ellen Cann.

Danielle Tarnawski paused for a moment after laying a wreath for the Gulf War - I and II.

Greg Henderson, laid a wreath for the war in Afghanistan.

Many people at the ceremony came from families touched by war, others attended to give thanks for their sacrifices.

Russ Berry (right), of The Royal Canadian Legion, Branch #140, acted as parade marshall for the service.

Girl Guides Bailie Dayman (left) and Morgan Kennedy, laid a wreath for their "sisters" in Bayfield Guiding.

Bayfield's Remembrance Day services recognize nine local boys killed in WWI and three lost in WWII in a Roll of Honor.

Jessica Langan performed The Last Post and Reveille on trumpet.

SUBMISSIONS

Thanks to the talented and generous Gary Lloyd-Rees who agreed to cover the Santa Claus Parade for the Bayfield Breeze I could have some fun on Saturday morning knowing the parade would be suitably covered.

For the second consecutive year I was able to ride with my Sparks, Brownies and Pathfinders on the Bayfield Optimist/Bayfield Guiding float in the village's Santa Claus Parade. I took my camera along and had a great time taking pictures of the spectators that watched the parade along the route. Below is a slide show of a selection of those images.

The Guides were kept busy handing out treat bags using a loaned golf cart as home base (thanks to the donor - I'm sorry I don't know your name!). Two hundred and sixty-seven treat bags, that they had also stuffed, were handed out - we didn't quite have enough for the whole route. We'll have to make double that number next year! Although if you look at the pictures closely I don't think the kids were lacking in the candy department. Enjoy! - Melody

Ideas and contributions to the Bayfield Breeze are always welcome. Deadlines for submissions are Sundays at 4 p.m.

Please email me at bayfield.breeze@villageofbayfield.com or call 519-565-2443.
