VISITORS TO MARKET TEMPTED BY SUMMER HARVEST DELIGHTS

Fresh strawberries and whipped cream served on a biscuit with a side of strawberry lemonade – sound yummy, doesn't it? Well, about 150 people would probably agree as that is the estimate on how many people indulged in this taste of summer at the Grand Opening of the Bayfield Farmers' Market on June 27.

The proceeds from this fundraiser were for market operations. Bayfield Berry Farm provided the strawberries. Smokey Hollow Farm the biscuits and juice. Organizers greatly appreciate the generosity of the new Bayfield Foodland for donating the whipping cream.

The Bayfield Farmers' Market runs until Thanksgiving on Friday afternoons from 3-6 p.m. in Clan Gregor Square with the exception of this Friday, July 4 when it moves to the lawn of the Bayfield Town Hall to accommodate Vettefest.

VETTEFEST

The 8th annual Bayfield Vettefest will begin on July 4th with a Summer Night Cruise from Clan Gregor Square starting at 7 p.m. Once gathered, the corvette enthusiasts will head out on a little road trip together.

Please note that the Bayfield Farmers' Market will be moved for this week only to the lawn behind the Bayfield Town Hall to make way for the corvettes. The market runs Fridays from 3-6 p.m.

On July 5th Clan Gregor Square will be filled with both old and new corvettes vintages ranging from 1954 to 2014. Last year's show drew over 250 cars with goodie bags being handed out to the first 200 vehicle's registered. Registration for the car show will begin at 8 a.m. in the park. The cost is $10 per vehicle. Those who take part are invited to park their cars for display in the square.

FIRST FRIDAY'S ART WALK

Another First Friday's Art Walk weekend has arrived and this time organizers are pleased to report there will be more musical acts joining the artists displaying their work.

Mayor of Bluewater, Bill Dowson, Tyler Hessel, councilor-at-large and Geordie Palmer, Bayfield ward councilor, were put to work for a worthy cause preparing the strawberries for the shortcake to be sold as a fundraiser for the Bayfield Farmers' Market. (Photos by Melody Falconer-Pounder)

The Bayfield Farmers' Market's first season was officially opened on the afternoon of June 27 with a ribbon cutting. Honored with the task was Mayor of Bluewater Bill Dowson. Bayfield Ward Councilor Geordie Palmer, Councilor-at-large, Tyler Hessel and Stanley West Ward Councilor, George Irvin provided encouragement while Joan Brady, market manager and Brian Wiley of Firmly Rooted Farm held tight to the "ribbon".

The idea behind this Bayfield and Area Chamber of Commerce initiative is that people can enjoy an evening of art by walking the Main Street as artists showcase their work in a number of locations. Each artist will have their own exhibition and will be available to talk to and explain their art. Snacks and refreshments will be served as well.

Organizers note that attendees should be on the lookout for white balloon markers to denote the First Friday exhibits.

AT THE GALLERIES...

The next First Friday's Artist Walk will coincide with the launch of a new exhibit of original work by artist Carolyn Hurd, of Zurich. On the evening of July 4, "The Beauty of Bayfield" will showcase Hurd's amazing ability to capture Bayfield scenes and architecture with the stroke of a brush.

The event will be held at JMR Gallery starting at 6 p.m. Refreshments will be served and the artist will be in attendance.

Limited Edition prints of several of the images will also be available as well as a second series of "The Black Dog" giclee print.

FIREMEN'S BREAKFAST

The firefighters in our village will be up bright and early on July 5th to prepare for their annual Firemen's Breakfast that will have people lining up for the 7 a.m. start of food service at the Bayfield Fire Hall.

And who wouldn't line up for pancakes with real maple syrup, eggs, bacon, sausage, potatoes, toast and juice, plus let's not forget the Tim Horton's coffee, generously donated by the Tim Horton's of Exeter.

The cost for the breakfast is adults, $7; and children, $4. The event will conclude at 11 a.m.

GRAND OPENING

David Loerchner is giving new life to the old Captain's Cove building on Hwy. 21. Located at the south edge of the village, Loerchner will open the new home for his business DL Creations on July 5.

The store's grand opening will run from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and 104.9 The Beach radio will be broadcasting live on location from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

In keeping with Loerchner's business of creating custom woodworking pieces, there will be several wood themed demonstrations including hand carving as well as timber framing combined with chainsaw carving.

Mark Cassidy, economic development coordinator for the Municipality of Bluewater (left) serves Mayor of Bluewater, Bill Dowson a helping of strawberry shortcake at the grand opening of the Bayfield Farmers' Market on the afternoon of June 27. Strawberry was the flavor of the day as both shortcake and lemonade was sold to raise funds for the market.

TWO LOCAL YOUTHS COULD EARN A BERTH ON THE TALL SHIPS

The Pathfinder and the Playfair will be docking in Bayfield Harbour July 12-13. To the common people they are tall ships, to the more nautical minded they are referred to as brigantines. By definition they are two-masted square-rigged sailing vessels with fore-and-aft rigged sails on the mainmast.

The Tall Ships will be visiting Bayfield and open for tours July 12-13. Volunteers are being sought to help with crowd control and other tasks. Wayne McKaig is coordinating volunteers. Anyone who can give some time is asked to contact him at wayne.mckaig@tcc.on.ca. (Photo courtesy Toronto Brigantine Inc.)

According to the website for Toronto Brigantine Inc. (TBI), the ships were both designed and built as sail training vessels for TBI by Francis A. McLachlan in Kingston, ON. Pathfinder and

ONE OF A KIND SHOW

Come to Bayfield Town Hall's One of a Kind Show on July 5, featuring local artisans displaying and selling their unique works of art.

Take in the beautiful mixed arts painted by local artists, as well as the glorious range of colors in the handmade scarves. Also look for woodwork; wooden benches, tables, made right here in Bayfield, along with jewelery, rugs, naturals soaps and much more.

The event will run from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Admission is free but donations to the Bayfield Town Hall Heritage Society would be welcome.

People won't want to miss this chance to support the many amazing area artists, as well as supporting the town hall.

ANGLICAN CHURCH

Last year Elvis came to town and got the audience all shook up. This year people will have the opportunity to swoon over Sinatra or go crazy over Patsy.

Yes, Frank Sinatra and Patsy Cline are coming to the Bayfield Town Hall as part of the "Legends in Concert" fundraiser organized by Trinity Anglican Church on July 5. The concert will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Tribute artists Dawn Peddle and Gary MacDonald will take on the roles of Patsy Cline and Frank Sinatra respectively.

Tickets are available now for $20 each from The Little Inn or Brandon's Hardware or by calling 519 565-4009.

RUMMAGE SALE

Nothing says it's summer like the Annual Pioneer Park Rummage Sale, now in its 67th year. All and sundry will be available to purchase from sporting gear for active folks to chairs to curl up in for those who like to read. This year, the Silent Auction will offer a new array of special and one-of-a-kind products and experiences that people will absolutely want to bid on.

The Pioneer Park Rummage Sale and Silent Auction will be held on July 11 with doors opening to the Bayfield Arena at 7 p.m.

The proceeds from this sale go, as they have for over half a century, to keeping Pioneer Park clean, green and open to view the best sunsets on the shore.

As folks open their cottages and sprint into spring-cleaning, they are asked to please put aside all those items that they think will be a treasure for someone else at the rummage sale.

Playfair were launched in 1963 and 1974 respectively. The Playfair has the distinction of being christened by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

It is also noted on their website that each summer between the end of June and the beginning of September, brigantines can be found visiting ports around the Great Lakes. While the vessels are commanded by Transport Canada-licensed Captains, the crew is comprised of seasoned teenagers who have two to five-years experience sailing with TBI. Trainees join the ships for seven to 14 day training courses and are assigned to one of three rotating watches, operating the ships on a 24-hour schedule. Trainees learn the basics of sail handling, seamanship, teamwork and leadership from the crew while experiencing the thrills and challenges of living and working aboard a tall ship.

TBI recently announced that two berths were available on the next leg of their journey from Bayfield to Penetanguishine (July 13-19) so a contest has been organized and two youth can win their spots by writing an essay entitled, “Why I would like to take a trip on a tall ship.” The contest is being organized through 104.9 The Beach radio and judging will be conducted by the event organizing committee and Bayfield Optimist Club members.

As a trainee, no previous experience is required – the youth officers of TS Playfair and STV Pathfinder provide all necessary instruction. Youth must fulfill three requirements to become trainees. They must be 13-18 years of age; must be physically and mentally fit; and must be able to swim 100 meters and then immediately be able to tread water for 10 minutes without fatigue.

As very large crowds are expected to see the Brigantines visitors will be directed to Agriculture Park for parking and shuttle vans, donated by McGee Motors and Lake Huron Chrysler, both of Goderich, will be used to bring people down to the pier for the tour.

Volunteers are being sought to help with crowd control and other tasks. Wayne McKaig is coordinating volunteers. Anyone who can give some time is asked to contact him at wayne.mckaig@tcc.on.ca.

Community groups rallied together to raise the $10,000 it cost to bring these two ships to Bayfield. Those organizations are: Optimist Club of Bayfield, Bayfield and Area Chamber of Commerce, Municipality of Bluewater, Bayfield Lions' Club, Bluewater Community Development Foundation and the Bayfield Historical Society.
Admission is free but donations would be appreciated. The ships will be open for tours from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The ships will be sailing into port on the evening of Thursday, July 10. No specific time as of yet but Pioneer Park should prove to be a great vantage point. People should note that no one is allowed on board the ships until tours begin on Saturday morning.

In honor of the Tall Ships docking in the harbor the Bayfield Yacht Club will hold a special sail past at 1 p.m. on Sunday. Other organizations will have displays set up down by the waterfront for visitors to enjoy. They include, The Canadian Navy, Canadian Power Squadron, Ontario Provincial Police and the Canadian Coast Guard.

The Tall Ships visit will coincide with other village events including a concert by The Glee Sisters in Pioneer Park on Saturday evening and the Thunderbird Car Show in Clan Gregor Square on Sunday.

PARK ABOUT MORE THAN SUNSETS

Pioneer Park is a great place to be in the summer months and it isn’t always about the sunsets either.

Some great things happen after sunrise too, like yoga for example. Every Tuesday and Thursday morning starting at 8:30 a.m. a free yoga session will be held during July and August.

And there is even more fun after dark. On July 5, movie night returns with Driving Miss Daisy as the featured presentation; the film will start around 9:20 p.m. Look for a future announcement for an August movie night as well.

July 26th is the date set for the popular “Star Gazing” put on by the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, London Centre. According to the experts the moon will not be making an appearance that night so the stars will take centre stage.

It should be noted that all acceptable small appliances and electronics must be CSA approved. Clothing, shoes, TVs, refrigerators, and baby furniture including cribs will not be accepted.

The Pioneer Park Rummage Sale committee is now accepting drop offs and beginning to pre-sort items for this years Rummage Sale. Please contact 519 440-8585 to arrange for drop offs in the days leading up to the event. Or people can drop their treasures off at the storage units just outside of town this July 2-4 from 9-11 a.m.. There will be somebody there to accept them. In addition. people can also drop donations off directly at the Bayfield Arena from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on July 10 and 11.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The members of the congregation of Knox Presbyterian Church are busy with numerous projects for the summer and one highlight will be their 83rd Anniversary on July 13.

They would like to invite all in the community to join for their worship service at 11 a.m. when they welcome Guest Speaker Rev. Jeanette Fleischer, a former summer student at Knox.

ONE CARE

One Care offers many fun exercise and socializing opportunities in Bayfield. There is something happening almost every day! There is a schedule on the bulletin board by the library and more information available inside the library. Or call 519 565-2202 or

But of course those sunsets won't be ignored and some musical acts are currently being lined up to serenade them on weekends. Stay tuned…

RIBS AND MUSIC FEST ATTRACTS NUMEROUS MUSICAL ACTS

Now with summer being official here all the outdoor activities seem endless. The Bayfield Community Fair is just six weeks away. The main feature for Friday, Aug. 15 is the Bayfield Ribs and Music Fest.

The Docks Restaurant and Bon Vivant Catering (Devin Tabor) will be offering sizzling barbecued ribs from 5-9 p.m. A full rack will sell for $20, a half rack will cost $15, and a sample of the ribs will be $2. Local corn, coleslaw, roll, and a soft drink will fill out the menu.

A ribs cook-off will be a competition among the local restaurants. Many have indicated they want to take part again for bragging rights of creating the best ribs in Bayfield.

Music will fill the air from 7 p.m. to 1 a.m. Canadian talent will be featured in the tent area behind the arena. The lineup includes Sal's Alley, Marcellus Wallace, Rusty, The Beauties and Cuff the Duke. Tickets are $30 for this licensed event. They are available locally and online.

In addition to the Ribs and Music Fest, the opening of the fair will take place and the arena will open for everyone to see the exhibits and all the concessions. The midway will also be open for all to enjoy so Friday will be a busy time in Agricultural Park.

TAKE THE YOUNGSTERS ON A HIKE

Hiking is great fun for children fresh out of school, needing exciting activities. Combine hiking with a trip to the local library. Many stories are about trails in the woods, leaving crumbs on pathways that the birds eat, stepping off the trail and losing the quest, or even having a conversation with a wily wolf while on the way through the woods to Grandma's. Older children may want to photograph and identify trees, flowers, even insects or small creatures found while hiking.

Be sure to hike equipped with insect repellent, sunscreen and drinking water. There are several trails in the area, some longer than others, but all interesting. BRVTA offers guided hikes and welcomes everyone to take part whether new to hiking, unfamiliar with the trails or hiking veterans who just like to socialize.

The Varna Nature Trails – Mavis' Trail and the Taylor Trail will be the location for the next BRVTA guided hike. The hike will be held on July 13 at 1 p.m. This hike begins at the Stanley Complex, just west of the village of Varna. It meanders through planted fir trees and deciduous woods towards the Bayfield River, where hikers get a good view, before looping around and hiking back to the starting point. Part of this trail is wheelchair accessible.

This hike is a Level 2, and should take 1.25 hours at a casual to moderate pace. Hikers are asked to meet in the Stanley Complex parking lot.

The leaders will be Pat Baker, 519 565-4015; Helen Varekamp, 519 565-5442; and Carol Powadiuk, 519 565-4120.

Anyone with questions concerning specific hikes or who would like to make suggestions, call one of the hike leaders or contact the program coordinator, by email thyra.knudsen@gmail.com or phone 519 606-0016.

TREE WATERING REMINDER

Despite lots of rain in early spring, our area trees are starting to get thirsty, especially those new trees planted in the last three years as part of the Bayfield Tree Project (BTP). Residents are encouraged to water these trees.

New trees need anywhere from one to two and a half inches of water per week to survive. A slow trickle of water over several hours is the best method.

Trees planted by the BTP can be found on Louisa, Anne, Charles, Howard, Colina, Dow, Delevan, William, Chiniquy, Charles, Jane, Hamilton, Troy, Ducharme, Tuyll, John and Euphemia Streets as well as on Bayfield Terrace, Victoria Place, Keith Cresent and the corners of Sarnia and Hwy. 21 and Mill Road.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

Bayfield has been home to a Country Flea Market for several decades. In more recent years, it has found a new home in Agriculture Park; a home that offers plenty of parking as well as some green space for children to run carefree.

The Bayfield Agricultural Society provides this home for the market that is open on Sundays from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. (maybe a little longer depending on the crowds). There are all kinds of unique items for sale such as antiques, furniture, books, tools, and sports collectibles. The market is also a good spot to pick up fresh produce and plants.

HEARING CLINIC

Have you heard the news? A monthly hearing clinic has been established in the village at Pharmasave Michael's Pharmacy. The next date for the clinic is July 15.

The Kincardine Hearing Clinic will be offering their services on the third Tuesday of every month from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The clinic will offer: hearing aid adjustments and repairs to all makes and models, no cost hearing tests, new prescription of hearing aids, wax removal, hearing aid battery sales as well as hard of hearing assistive devices. Please call Shannon Gould at The Kincardine Hearing Clinic at 1-855-396-6026 to book an appointment.

REMEMBER ME?

ISSUE 259

There are countless photographs of people in the Bayfield Historical Society’s Archives collection, but sadly their names were never recorded. In this section we will showcase an image with the hopes that one of our subscribers might be able to identify the individual(s) in the photo. Please email your information to the Editor’s attention at the address listed near the bottom of the page in “Submissions” or you can email the archivist directly at bayarchives@tcc.on.ca or click on the image and make a comment on Flickr. You can view the entire Collection of Remember Me Photos: Volume 2 on Flickr as well.

Editor's Note: We are now adding the archive's code to the information supplied with the photographs so that if anyone would like to learn more from the Bayfield Archives about certain pictures they can use the code to make the process easier.

This week, more fun at the beach – the only note with the photo states David Dewar may be the man in the image. Anyone remember the others? (Archives Code: PB13 15b)

In Issue 259, an image of Rev. J.B Harrison ringing the bell to call the congregation of Trinity Anglican Church to worship. It should be noted that this is the old entrance to the church. (Archives Code: PB13 32b)

WEAVING LOOM LOOKING FOR A LOVING HOME

This weaving loom is looking for a loving Bayfield home to welcome it into the family. The Chapmans on Louisa street inherited it a few years ago from its first owner, the late Greta Du Boulay.

The logo on the loom provides a bit of insight into it's history. It was probably made some time between 1944-48 in l'Islet, Québec by Nilus Leclerc Inc.

Greta and Philip Du Boulay retired to Bayfield in 1967. Married for more than 60 years, the couple is remembered for their contributions to both their church family (Trinity Anglican) and community. Greta died in the spring of 2002 while her husband followed in 2006 in his 102nd year.

For many deceased former Bayfield residents that is probably where the story would end. But it is not so for the Du Boulays as they left behind a treasure – Greta's weaving loom.

The Chapman family, of Louisa Street, inherited the loom from Greta but they can no longer care for it and an offer to donate it to the Bayfield Historical Society's Archives is not feasible due to its large size. It is not for sale but a loving family who will use it and keep it in Bayfield is now being sought. Local quilting and weaving groups have been contacted to see if there is an interest.

According to Bayfield Archivist, Ralph Laviolette, the loom is in perfect working order.

Nina Manners, of Camilla Valley Farm Weavers Supply, of Orangeville, said, "The loom is what Leclerc originally called their "Series M Rigid Loom" which was later called the "Mira" loom. Based on the logo and the mechanism, the loom was probably made some time between 1944 and 1948 in l'Islet, Québec by Nilus Leclerc Inc. The company is one of the oldest in Canada and is still making a variant of this loom called the Mira II."

Olga Palmer, whose parents, the Youmatoffs, were neighbors to the Du Boulays recalls with fondness Greta working on the loom.

"My memories of the loom are vague but I do remember never seeing the loom with the same thing in it, it was always in use, carefully cared for, and not still until she left for Goderich (seniors' home).

"I also remember the hours she would sit weaving everything from tiny placemats to large elaborate hangings and drapes. Once when I was here with the children, it was 1972, they came over to visit my parents, and my twins, Kate and Judy took her to see their dolls in the temporary beds that grandpa had made them. I was in the hospital in Clinton at the time, just having baby Jamie. She decided they needed a treat and the next day at church she presented them with beautiful woven covers for the beds and little pillows for their dolls!"

Greta Du Boulay, who died in 2002, was well known in the community for her weaving work creating everything from placemats to drapes on this loom.

According to Palmer, the Du Boulays never had children, and in spite of her reserved nature Greta would always try to reach out. Palmer notes that her woven items would have been displayed all over the village in their friend's homes

Any local residents interested in becoming "the keeper of the loom" are asked to email Laviolette at bhs@tcc.on.ca or contact him by phone at 519 440-6206.

SUBMISSIONS

Faithful readers will know that in Issues 257 and 258 I wrote in this section about a lost watch that thanks to the Bayfield Breeze getting the word out was recovered.

The watch's owner, May Ann Colihan, wrote in this week to share that the time piece, which had been a gift from her husband twenty years ago, has now been returned to her.

"I am getting a new band, will engrave my name on the back and won't be wearing it around the lake again. The person who found it turned down the reward but suggested I make a donation to the Pioneer Park fund. So the lost watch was a win for Melody Falconer-Pounder Bayfield and for me too. Thanks again so much for helping to get this watch returned to a grateful wrist."

Just what I like to write about best – a happy ending! - Melody

Ideas and contributions to the Bayfield Breeze are always welcome.
Deadlines for submissions are Sundays at 4 p.m.
